

merits. God says of your good works “But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away” (Isaiah 64:6).

At this moment, will you believe that Jesus Christ died for your sins, was buried, and rose from the dead, and will you place your faith in Him? If you have placed your faith in Jesus Christ, then He has given you eternal life, and you will be with Him in heaven for all eternity after you die, but if you reject Him, you will be forever separated from God when He casts you into hell for all eternity. Why not choose to believe in Jesus Christ today?

Free printable gospel tracts at:
www.alwaysgoodnews.org

HEAVEN OR HELL

WHICH WILL YOU CHOOSE?

merits. God says of your good works “But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away” (Isaiah 64:6).

At this moment, will you believe that Jesus Christ died for your sins, was buried, and rose from the dead, and will you place your faith in Him? If you have placed your faith in Jesus Christ, then He has given you eternal life, and you will be with Him in heaven for all eternity after you die, but if you reject Him, you will be forever separated from God when He casts you into hell for all eternity. Why not choose to believe in Jesus Christ today?

Free printable gospel tracts at:
www.alwaysgoodnews.org

HEAVEN OR HELL

WHICH WILL YOU CHOOSE?

The Bible makes it clear that after this life there is heaven and hell (Ephesians 3:15, Luke 16:23,24). Friend, which will you choose? I hope heaven is your answer. The Bible gives a frightening description of hell, “And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom” (Luke 16:23). Heaven is God's dwelling and to enter it, you must be absolutely perfect without sin. Nothing unclean can enter because God is perfectly Holy (Revelation 21:27, Psalm 22:3). The bad news is that the Bible has declared “all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23), it also says “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God” (Romans 3:19). God's Word makes

The Bible makes it clear that after this life there is heaven and hell (Ephesians 3:15, Luke 16:23,24). Friend, which will you choose? I hope heaven is your answer. The Bible gives a frightening description of hell, “And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom” (Luke 16:23). Heaven is God's dwelling and to enter it, you must be absolutely perfect without sin. Nothing unclean can enter because God is perfectly Holy (Revelation 21:27, Psalm 22:3). The bad news is that the Bible has declared “all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23), it also says “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God” (Romans 3:19). God's Word makes it clear that everyone has sinned, including yourself. We have all lied, stolen, looked with lust, taken God's name in vain, hated another.

God is too holy to overlook sin. Therefore the just punishment we all rightly deserve for our sins is eternity in hell. “And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire” (Revelation 20:15).

But the good news is that Jesus Christ (God) became a man and died for all of your sins (past, present, and future). He then was buried and was raised from the dead on the third day (I Corinthians 15:3,4). Jesus Christ demonstrated His great love for you by dying on the cross for your sins (Romans 5:8). Therefore since Jesus died for you and rose again, He offers you eternal life with Him in heaven as a free gift. This free gift can't be earned by your good works and

it clear that everyone has sinned, including yourself. We have all lied, stolen, looked with lust, taken God's name in vain, hated another.

God is too holy to overlook sin. Therefore the just punishment we all rightly deserve for our sins is eternity in hell. “And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire” (Revelation 20:15).

But the good news is that Jesus Christ (God) became a man and died for all of your sins (past, present, and future). He then was buried and was raised from the dead on the third day (I Corinthians 15:3,4). Jesus Christ demonstrated His great love for you by dying on the cross for your sins (Romans 5:8). Therefore since Jesus died for you and rose again, He offers you eternal life with Him in heaven as a free gift. This free gift can't be earned by your good works and